Rafael Vázquez Guevara is a student of UC Santa Barbara Lecturer Ertan Torgul

A junior recital presented by the University of California, Santa Barbara Division of Humanities and Fine Arts in the College of Letters and Science and the UC Santa Barbara Department of Music in partial fulfillment of the Bachelor of Music degree.
About the Artists

Rafael Vázquez Guevara, Violin
Rafael Vázquez Guevara, from Guanajuato, Mexico, is a third-year violin performance major at UC Santa Barbara under professor Ertan Torgul. Rafael started playing violin in 7th grade when he was accidentally placed in the orchestra class. As time passed he started learning violin and decided to pursue music as his major. When Rafael is not practicing or doing academic work he likes to explore new music, play tennis, and go on adventures.

Buyun Li, Piano
China-born pianist Buyun Li graduated from Xinghai Conservatory of Music with a Bachelor of Music degree and received her two Master of Music degrees in Piano Performance and Piano Pedagogy from the University of Central Oklahoma (UCO) on scholarships. She is currently a Doctor of Musical Arts candidate in Piano Performance and a Teaching Assistant at the University of California, Santa Barbara, where she studies with esteemed pianist, Charles Asche. She won the First Prize in the OMTNA Competition (Oklahoma State) in 2016; First Prize in the UCO Concerto Competitions in 2014; Third Prize in the Kuleshov International Piano Competition in 2015; and Third Prize in HongKong International Piano Invitation Competition in 2013. Li also participated in master classes with many notable musicians, such as Andrew von Oeyen, Webb Wiggins, Elisabeth Adkins, Louis Lortie, Brad Bennight, Edward Gates, Read Gainsford, Nelita True, and Jeremy Denk.

Acknowledgments

Special thanks to:

Professor Ertan Torgul, pianist Buyun Li, roommate Veltson and Andrea, UCSB janitor Gilbert, and Anthony Garcia for making my recital possible.
